“Hi there! My name is Cierra Jones. I spoke at your son's service last year and I just felt the need to reach out and say again that I am so sorry for your loss, no parent should have to go through this. I wish I knew your son better but from what I knew about him, he was a strong hearted kid. He had a kind heart, a good sense of humor, and he was extremely smart. I may not understand exactly what he was going through but I do to some extent. it is so hard to go through darkness and loneliness and when you do, you get choked up, cant breathe because you are so overwhelmed and scream to God asking why he is doing this to you. I wish I could've helped save him. I wish I could've been there for him to talk to, let him know that he wasn't alone. My family continues to pray for your family as a year has almost passed. Every once in a while, I go and post on his last Instagram post, like him and I are having our own conversation. I don't know if you will see this or not, I hope you will. I think its important to know that a lot of people love Anthony, I would've loved him to if I would have gotten to know him better, but I love the legacy he leaves behind. Anthony has inspired me to go to school and become an M.D. Psychiatrist to help kids who suffer from depression. it would be coming at them from a neutral and understanding perspective. I want to ask this in person, but it would be an honor to use his last name for the name of a business I want to create when I eventually get to that stage, "The Wright Care". It's catchy, beautiful, it rings, and it has meaning. I am really sorry you are having to go through this. If you ever need anything please feel free to facebook message me. Again I am so sorry. I hope you can enjoy the rest of your week. Sincerely, Cierra Jones

“ Jim, Marty and I are devastated to hear about your precious son. We loved him. We are grateful to have spent the little time we did get to spend with him as he was such a neat guy. So impressed with his dedication to his school work and the sports he participated in. Gosh, so young and such a huge loss to all that knew him. We are truly sorry Jim and know that we mourn your loss with you.. May God provide you with comfort during this unimaginable time. Marty and Bev Rakich
