

Barbara Marie Carnahan

September 25, 1927 - October 4, 2020

Barbara Marie Roberts was born September 25, 1927 in Cottonwood, Arizona to Kate Wood Roberts and Franklin George Roberts. She joined older siblings Eleanor, twins Les & Wes, Ted, and Harold. Her father graduated from the University of Washington in 1912 then worked as a mining engineer until his death in 1937 leaving behind his wife and 9 children in Lewiston, Idaho. Barbara is now survived by her 3 younger siblings, Cath, twins Ralph & Rich, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Barbara met the love of her life while in college studying for her bachelors degree in nursing, Clarence Carnahan - Bud. They married in 1950, worked together through medical training and practice (which ended at the VA Clinic in Bend), raised 2 kids, Jane (1955) & Brent (1957). She was an excellent mother and wife, known for her hospitality and cooking, always full of love. She is survived by Bud, Jane (& spouse Dan), Brent (& spouse Laura), plus 4 grandchildren: Luke, Nick, Duane & Leslie.

Tribute Wall

DK

“ Thinking of you, Bud. You have been a great friend.

---

Don Krug - October 14, 2020 at 12:00 AM

SA

“ With deepest sympathy to your family. Barb was a delightful person. So outgoing and always fun to be around. She will be missed.

---

Susan & Robert Agli - October 13, 2020 at 12:00 AM