

Carole J. Siegworth

June 20, 1931 - May 4, 2021

Carole J. Siegworth, age 89, passed away on May 4, 2021, with her husband Hal at her side.

Carole was the youngest in a family of nine children. She was a native Oregonian; her ancestors having come over the Oregon Trail in 1857. They settled along Fall Creek near the town of Fall Creek, Oregon. Carole attended high school in Lowell, Oregon and later went to Oregon State University and Oregon Medical School (now OHSU) and graduated as a registered nurse. She worked mainly as a surgical nurse. After some 15 years, she met and married Harold Siegworth. They were married 53 years before her passing.

They were members of Bend Church - United Methodist and the High Desert Village.

Having come to Bend in 1975, she became interested in Fiber Arts. She joined the Central Oregon Spinners and Weavers Guild. During the next 30 years she learned to spin wool and other fibers. This led to weaving and knitting all sorts of caps, sweaters, small blankets, curtains, and rug hooking with spun yarn. She also enjoyed hiking, biking, fishing and tried her hand at basket making.

Carole is survived by Hal and several nieces and nephews. A family gathering is being planned for later in the summer.

Memorial contributions may be made to Partners In Care Hospice, 2075 NE Wyatt Court, Bend, OR 97701.

Niswonger-Reynolds Funeral Home was honored to serve the family.

“ We remember Aunt Carole as a kind and gentle woman, soft-spoken and always willing to help others. It was interesting to hear her share stories of her family's ancestors coming to Oregon over the Oregon Trail and making their new home in Oregon. She was a loyal Oregonian. She was very talented with her weaving, knitting, sewing, etc., and had many beautiful hand-made items she was proud of. She will be missed by many. Thanks for the memories. May you Rest In Peace, Aunt Carole. We love you. -Linda, John, Michael Harris and Jennifer Kelly
