

Charles Bettencourt

April 4, 1928 - August 4, 2012

Charles Bettencourt passed away on Saturday, August 4, 2012. He is survived by his wife of 63 years, Jean Bettencourt and their two children, Doug Bettencourt of Terrebonne, OR and Vickie Nicoletto of Ventura, CA. He is also survived by his daughter-in-law, Sue Bettencourt, his son-in-law, Terry Nicoletto, his grand-daughters Carrie Ann Husband, Nikki Nicoletto-Christy, Tammie Coulter, Cassie Nicoletto, his grandson, Brian Bettencourt, and eight great-grandchildren. Charles was born April 4, 1928, and grew up in Ventura, CA. He proudly served his country in the US Air Force. He later worked in Oxnard, CA as a supervisor for the General Telephone Company for 28 years before retiring to Bend, OR in 1978. He and Jean, along with their son, were owner/operators of Bettencourt Pumps for several years here in Central Oregon. Charles enjoyed his family, taking motor home trips with Jean, keeping his yards in tip-top shape, and raising several boxer puppies. At his request, no service will be held; however, the family suggests memorials be made in his honor to any of the Central Oregon Humane Society Shelters.
