

Charlotte A. Miller

January 20, 1936 - October 24, 2017

Charlotte Miller passed away peacefully on October 24th at her home with her husband Donald Miller at her side. Her infectious smile, unbridled energy, and loving spirit were evident to all who met her and will remain with them in their hearts. Charlotte was born in Lebanon, Oregon, where she joined her brother Willard Kleen. Their parents, the Reverend Ralph and Miriam Kleen, were dedicated servants of the Methodist Church and as a family the Kleens served numerous churches in Oregon and California. Charlotte enthusiastically embraced the life of an Air Force wife and mother living all around the United States as well as tours abroad, both in Germany and England. Wherever she went she remained active in the church usually as the back-up organist and most versatile choir member capable of singing or playing any part by sight with just a moments notice. She faced every task with a sense of joy, be it moving a household across country with a pack of wild children at her heels or her frequent volunteer work with many social groups. Charlotte leaves behind her husband of 61 years, Donald Miller, her four boys: Wes, Mike, Steve and Keith, and 9 grandchildren. They all, as well as numerous friends around the world, will sorely miss her. A celebration of Charlottes life will be held at Bend Methodist Church on November 18th at 1:00. “ It was an honor and pleasure to have known Charlotte; she was/is a lovely human being, a wonderful woman and a great role model. Her bright, joyful smile many a time lifted my heart and brought a smile to my own face. Though she'll certainly be missed, her spirit lives on in the many, many people she touched. Love and Light.
