“ Sad to hear that Chris has gone from this world. I haven't seen him in almost 30 years but we grew up together. One of my favorite memories is when he showed up at my house and asked my dad if I could go for a drive with him. He had that dark green Chevelle with the white top parked out in the driveway. My dad asked how old he was and when Chris said 15, my dad said, no. I was 14. He was a bad boy but a sweet guy and I'll always love him like crazy.

“ Mike, sorry for the loss of your brother. He surely will be missed. I grew up with Chris, and ran around with him all though out our lives. Many good times. Some not so good. I can't believe he's gone. What a sad day.
