

Deborah Ann Halferty

August 6, 1951 - October 23, 2024

Deborah Ann Halferty (Debbie) passed away peacefully on October 23, 2024, at her home in Sunriver, Oregon, surrounded by loved ones. She was born August 6, 1951, in Hollywood, California to James E. and GeNelle (Lewis) Halferty. Debbie was a graduate of Duarte High School; she went on to pursue a career in the interior design and architectural field. She retired from running a company with her husband, Thomas Charles Rundberg, in the earthquake safety industry.

Debbie was a lover of the outdoors and horses. She was a beloved member of the horse community as she spent much of her time riding and caring for horses.

Debbie is survived by her husband of 22 years, Tom Rundberg, her two children, Sydney Spencer and Geoff Carr, her sister Janna Hawes, her brother James Halferty and her seven grandchildren.

Debbie will be remembered for her abundant joy, eternal optimism, her love and support for friends and family, and her love of her equestrian family. Her legacy is carried on through her children and the many lives she touched.
