

Diana Lee Wilson

September 24, 1937 - October 9, 2024

Diana Lee Wilson, age 87 passed away October 9, 2024, in Bend, Oregon. Born September 24, 1937 in Fullerton, California, Diana devoted much of her professional life to her role as an office manager at Golden West Mobile Homes, where her diligence and commitment set a standard of excellence. A graduate of Brea Olinda High School, Diana's roots and education played a significant role in shaping her early life and career. Diana is remembered with love and respect by those who knew her, both in her personal and professional circles.

Diana is survived by her children, Donald Wilson married to Paula, Gary Wilson married to Tonya, and Teri Wilson married to Richard Holly; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, Nobel and Bernice Neal; her son, James Wilson; and her husband, Wayne Wilson.

Diana will be remembered for her quiet strength and dedication to her family and work. Her legacy is carried on through her children and the many lives she touched.

Tribute Wall

MV

“ Our family had so many amazing times with the Wilson's. I remember Diane always smiling. Me and my Cousin Steve Manual chat about the good fun we had with the camping gang. Fond memories. Now and forever. Rest on peace.

Mike Vanderburg - October 20, 2024 at 11:10 AM

AD

“ My Nana was such a blessing to have in life. She loved her family fiercely and we will miss her so much ❤️

Amber Dean - October 17, 2024 at 10:20 PM

BP

“ I too remember all the camping trips. Our core memories are filled with great times. I'll remember Diana's smile and laugh. Both she and Wayne were good people and fun to be with. I'll miss you Diana, rest in peace 🙏

Brenda Vanderburg Pace - October 17, 2024 at 07:38 PM

PA

“ My favorite memories of Diane and her family is when we went camping. We all had so much fun! I remember camping in the desert, beach and mountains. I will always treasure those memories. Rest in peace dear Diane.

pam - October 17, 2024 at 07:18 PM

DW

Thanks Pam. Those early days of our families camping trips were the best of times for sure.

Don Wilson - October 18, 2024 at 09:31 PM

TE

“ There's four generations in this picture. Diana, my Mother, me, her daughter, Allison her granddaughter and Lily and Ava her great granddaughters. Celebrating her birthday at her favorite Mexican restaurant. I love you and will miss you forever. 💕

teridh@yahoo.com - October 17, 2024 at 07:08 PM

TH

There's four generations in this photo. Diana, Teri, Allison, Lily and Ava. We love you and will miss you. Rest in peace 🙏💕

Teri Holly - October 17, 2024 at 07:12 PM

DW

“ A big part of her life over the past twenty years was shared with her significant other Howard Sargent during the time she lived in Aliso Viejo.

Don Wilson - October 17, 2024 at 06:51 PM

P5

What a beautiful lady. So sorry to hear of your tremendous loss. Love seeing the photos that are shared and hearing about her life. Thinking of you all, and glad you have such wonderful memories to treasure.

---

Peggy Lee Combs 541-480-7653 - October 18, 2024 at 10:53 AM

DW

Thank you Peggy.

---

Don Wilson - October 18, 2024 at 09:27 PM

KP

Sending deepest sympathy for the loss of Diana. She was one of my mom's best forever friends, since childhood. Rest in Peace, Diana. Fly with the Angels.

---

Kelli Politoske - October 20, 2024 at 06:15 PM