“ Dear Ken and family, I was stunned to learn recently of Donnas death in March. We were classmates in Owatonna and in our years there had many wonderful times together. While we have not had contact other than Christmas letters for quite a few years, I have always had a soft spot in my heart for her and loved hearing about her teaching experiences and your family. Your boys and Tammy, and you, were definitely number 1 in her heart, right after God, and she delighted in all of you. She definitely was young in heart and spirit and I will treasure my memories of her. Please accept my condolences for your loss the emptiness must be profound. I hope you will find comfort in memories of happier times. Prayers for strength, courage and peace are being sent your way. Warmly,
Karen Jenke Altpeter OHS 61
