“ Had fun camping with David several years ago. We visited him at home, were at his reception, and a birthday and just becoming friends before his illness. It is with regret that we will miss our friend David.

“ My deepest heartfelt sympathy to every one of us who loved David, especially his family❤️ There are so many hilarious David stories packed into my memories along with some very fuzzy memories. However, my first memory of David was well before we became friends. It was 1994, maybe 95 when he went so far above and beyond to help me with a difficult custom hearing protection fitting that I was determined to make work. It was a shining example of how committed David's life was to improving the lives of patients.
