

Eleanor Helen Steele Porath

September 7, 1926 - June 19, 2022

Eleanor Helen Steele Porath, age 95, a devout Christian, passed away peacefully of natural causes, June 19th, at home. She was born a preemie at home, in Portland, OR in 1926, was the daughter of Charles and Nellie Steele, married to Ronald Porath and had three children.

She is survived by her son Bruce, daughter Becky Gamble, son-in-law Richard Gamble and grandson, Drew Gamble.

She moved to Bend in 2002 to be near Becky and assist with the Gambles downtown store.

Fondly named 'Supergranny' by her grandson, Eleanor had 2 books published in her 80's and was a motivational speaker at various women's groups. Her books are, '7 Soul Searches and 'Reincarnated- Athlete to Paraplegic; a story about her son Brian who passed in 2009.

Eleanor had a private burial at Greenwood Cemetery in Bend with her 'purse and her lipstick' and family friends and will have a 'celebration of life' memorial Aug 20th at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, in Bend, where she had lived the last 3 years.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Partners in Care,

Bend

Tribute Wall

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss ~ Niswonger-Reynolds Funeral Home

A Memorial Tree was planted for Eleanor Helen Steele Porath - July 25, 2022 at 12:00 AM