

Elizabeth S. Hoch

August 31, 1927 - April 14, 2018

Elizabeth "Betty" Hoch was born in Reading, PA on August 31, 1927. She passed away peacefully at age 90 on March 14, 2018. She has loved living in Bend since 1990, when she and her husband, the late Paul Hoch moved to the Sunriver area. To the delight of their children, they decided to retire north of their home in the San Francisco Bay area, rather than go south like so many of their friends. She made many new friends among the Deschutes River Recreation Homeowners, whom she joined for Bunco, gambling expeditions and the occasional pancake breakfast. Her passion for wildlife and birds, especially owls, was satisfied by looking out the huge windows of her home on the Deschutes river. Family and home were the center of Bettys life, although she had a masters degree and trained as an occupational therapist. She was sadly pre-deceased by her husband, Paul, her daughter Susan Dame, and brother, Robert Simon, all of Bend. She is survived by loving sons and their families A Celebration of Life service will be held fat a later date. Contributions can be made to National Audubon Society, 225 Varick St, 7th Fl.
