“ Frank and Alice and I worked together at the Tower Theater in Bend in the late 1950s. I always remembered him, never forgot how kind he was to me as a teenager with my first job. I was so sad to read this. Prayers to Alice and his family.

“ I really regret not getting to visit with Frank in recent years. Our trips to Bend have quick up and quick back. I cared for Frank. I sought his opinion often. He was always able to cut through the static and assess a situation for what it was. He was an excellent cop and a trusted confidant. I will miss him a very good man!
