“ Ron, Gary's brother and myself, Kay, Gary's sister will miss him dearly. Gary was a great brother to us. He always had a way to make us smile and laugh. I don't think I ever saw my brother without a smile on his face and making everyone feel welcome and part of the family. Gary was kind and loving to all. He is in Heaven now with our mom and dad, putting on an awesome firework show no doubt. We love you Gary and miss you tremendously. We will see you again someday. ❤️

“ Donna and family

We are so very sorry for the loss of Gary. He truly loved his family. Gary was a great friend. You might say a brother from another mother. I will greatly miss him as I know all of you will as well. I will miss his laugh and his bugging me to come out in July to help him on the 4th. There will be a huge hole in my heart for sure. God brought us together to be friends for a reason I only wish I could of slowed him down a little and see what love surrounded him. Your family will always be in our daily thoughts and prayers until our final breath. One day we will be together again in glory. May God give you peace.
