

Georgia (Jo) Lee Rogers

April 15, 1937 - September 6, 2021

Georgia (Jo) Lee Rogers passed quietly at St. Charles Medical Center on the morning of Monday, September 6th, due to covid-19 at the age of 84.

She was born April 15th, 1937, to Edwin and Georgia Spencer, and was a beloved only child.

Jo was the brightest smile in the room, with a loving heart to match. She spent much of her time as a deputy city clerk of Redmond, enjoying her family, painting, hiking, camping, playing cards, and horseback riding. She was always eager to learn, and would not shy away from adventure, from riding as a passenger on her grandson's ATV on a muddy day, to paragliding, to long trips on horseback at 80.

Jo spent the last 20 years of her life with her beloved husband, Milt, taking their golden years to travel the world, enjoy the outdoors, and celebrate in the Lord. She will be remembered for her kindness, optimism, laughter, and vivacious spirit.

Jo will live on through her sons (David Wolf, Bryan Wolf, and Daniel Wolf), seven grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Niswonger-Reynolds Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. Service will be held at Powell Butte Christian Church Saturday, September 25th at 3:30pm.
