“ Seems like a lifetime ago we were in the Redmond Foursquare Church with Rosemary's sainted mother, Lois at the piano. We had no idea where life would take us. We were young, so young, silly, and mischievous yet deeply committed to Jesus. Great CY Rallies and outreaches into Prineville were followed with cookies, Hawaiian Punch and lots and lots of laughter. It seems like yesterday we prayed as you left for Miles City, Montana. Fifty years later, my leg still bears the scars of helping Glen cut firewood for "extra money." He swung the chain saw back after catching it in a bind accidentally cutting through my jeans, and then a second pair of jeans and tearing flesh from bone - our prayer life grew that day on the way to the hospital! Although the years separated us, we've known God's faithfulness, God's compound blessings, and lives transformed by His Holy Spirit. You have my deepest and sincerest sympathies. Soon, very soon ... we'll experience a day like no other, a grand reunion with those who await our arrival and forever and forever, together with our Savior.
