“ Jeannie and family We are so sorry for your loss. Jim will be missed by many people. He was a wonderful father and grandfather. Your family has always meant so much to our family, and although we havent seen each other in a while, you are always in our hearts with fond memories and especially our gratitude for all the wonderful memories we have of you as neighbors, friends, and caregivers to our children, and an occasional parking spot for my Honda car on your front lawn. (When our driveway got slick and the car slid down the hill and always wound up in the middle of your front lawn!) We love all of you. Ron & Jackie

“ I am going to miss my brother Jim so much!! I am the baby of eight kids and I will deeply miss my big brother, I knew Jim loved me and I will miss those tight hugs because they were full of love for me. I will miss his story telling and he was always so funny and he was always the funniest of all the eight kids and always the life of the party. There will always be an emptiness and a sadness in my heart until we see each other again in Heaven. Jim I will always love and adore you my big brother and soon we will all be together for eternity.

“ How can one even express the sadness of loosing a sibling, especially the sadness of hearing of the first one which makes our family now incomplete. The joy we have always had of spending time with each other, the laughter, the memories, the food, the regrets are all part of what made us a family. We were poor compared to others standards, but we were rich in all the ways that counted in life. Our family is now incomplete, our oldest brother is now with Dad, his grandson Jeffery, but the legacy he has left behind to all who knew him still lingers in the air. We will always love you big brother, but we also get to spend eternity forever with you, eventually as time goes by, you will greet us all, one by one, with one of those special hugs you always gave! You were not only our brother but you were also our friend, live in peace now dear brother, you will always be loved and NEVER forgotten!

“ Jim was one of my favorite cousins, and the one who made me laugh the most. We grew up a good portion of our grade school years together one house separating us in Bingen, WA and was sad when the family moved to Hood River, OR. We had many good memories as children and also as adults through the cousin reunions. Jeannie was the one and only wife he had as he found his love and soul mate the first time, I can understand why it only took him one time as she is an amazing lady, for me it took a few more times but did finally find that one person. I admire Jim for the father, husband, brother, cousin, and friend he was. It didnt matter to Jim what you did for a living, how much you owned, how many degrees you had, he took you for the person you were inside and that was what he wanted to get to know. I will miss you Jim and all my heart felt sympathy goes out to those grieving and left with an emptiness like I feel. Love, Trish

“ My brother Jim was greatly admired and tremendously enjoyed by his 3 brothers, 4 sisters and all of their families. Sometimes in life, there is one individual in a family (if you are lucky) who makes every event, the event . this was Jim! His stories were endless, relentless, hysterical and often accompanied by theatrics. They created endless laughter literally causing the tears to stream down your face! It didnt matter how many times one heard the story, it still was as funny as the very first time he shared the experience. He brought an energy when he entered the room. He was a brilliant man. Jim possessed a very tender heart. He left with us with such warm and cherished memories. He is without a doubt one awesome guy who is amazingly wonderful, cherished, and adored by all of us. Personally, I will miss his hugs! I will always love him and feel the empty hole in my heart for this awesome friend and brother I really look forward to seeing him again! DyAnn (The eldest sibling 10 months older than Jim)
