“ Sandy,Julie,Mike, and families, We know its hard to see one suffer so much and then lose them but take comfort in knowing that Jim is definately in Gods care now. We remember the fun we had getting together and playing cards while the kids did their thing. We also remember when we were at your place and a tornado was heading in our direction. We have good memories of the times spent together. Even though were apart now in miles we are still together in memories and prayers for all of you.May God comfort you during this time and always.

“ Jim was one of those neighbors who was always there when you needed him. Our favorite memory is seeing his delight whenever he pulled his motorcycle out of the garage to get ready for a ride. It was a pleasure knowing Jim. May he rest in peace and may his family remain strong.
