

John Lloyd Ruble

January 15, 1923 - September 2, 2012

Eugene was Jack's home for much of his working life. He was involved in the lumber industry for many years, serving as principal at several lumber brokerage firms before opening up his own business, Ruble Forest Products, Inc. in 1964. Jack first married Diane Krieske with whom he had four sons and a daughter. In 1979, he married his wife Mimi and, in 1986, they and their daughter Lindsay moved to Central Oregon. During these years, Jack was a Real Estate broker. He retired in 1993 to enjoy a life filled with family and friends. Jack was a member of St. Francis Church and was involved in that and the broader Central Oregon community, serving on the Bend LaPine School Board during the early 1990s. Jack is survived by his wife, Mimi of Bend, his sons and their spouses, Steven Ruble of Bend, Craig Ruble and Mary of Portland, Jim Ruble and Brenda of Lake Oswego, Jeff Ruble of Sunriver; and his daughters, Nancy D'Urso of Lake Oswego and Lindsay Ruble of Bend. He is also survived by nine grandchildren. A funeral mass was held at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 8, 2012 at St. Thomas More Church in Portland with interment at Mt. Calvary Cemetery. There will be a brunch at a private home on October 14th following the 10 o'clock mass at St. Francis Church. Family and friends can gather to celebrate Jack's life. Please contact Mimi at 541 788-1680 for more information. Memorial donations may be made to the Hospice of Redmond.
