

Joseph "Joey" Wylder

June 9, 1994 - August 31, 2021

Joseph "Joey" Wylder died on August 31st, 2021 in Culver, Oregon due to a tragic vehicle accident. He was 27.

Joey was born on June 9th, 1994 in Portland, Oregon to his parents, Todd and Amy Wylder. He graduated from La Pine High School in 2012. Joey lived in various places around Oregon, eventually settling in Bend. He worked as the Sous Chef for Sunset Dinners at Mt. Bachelor, a place where he absolutely loved to be. This Winter, he was going to be promoted to Chef of Mt. Bachelor's West Village.

Joey was an extremely kind, generous, and helpful person, who would do anything he could to help a person in need. His passions were cooking, skiing, camping, and anything that involved Mt. Bachelor. His love for the mountain was only surpassed by his love for his family, and their undying love for him.

Joey is survived by his parents, Todd and Amy Wylder; his siblings, Tyson Johnson, Acacia Shields, Jordan Wylder, Jacob Wylder, and James Wylder; and his two nieces and six nephews.

Joey will be remembered in a private celebration of life with family and friends. Invitations will be sent in the coming days. In lieu of flowers, please donate to your charity of choice.
