

Lawrence Wayne Baggett

May 16, 1947 - September 19, 2016

Bend, Oregon Lawrence (Larry) Wayne Baggett passed away Monday, September 19, at his home in Bend, Oregon, after a six year battle with prostate cancer. We wish to thank Hospice Partners in Care for all their wonderful support and care during this difficult time. Larry was born May 16, 1947, to Mary and William (Dub) Baggett in Ringgold, Georgia. Larry is survived by his wife of thirty years, Barbara, and their daughter Courtney, as well as his younger brother Doug, and sister Sharon Kaplan. He attended The School of Mines in Golden, Colorado and completed his Bachelors in Business at Regis College, while employed by the City of Colorado Springs. Larry started working for the City digging ditches for the Gas Division, and over his 30 years of service worked his way up to the Fleet and Facilities Director. Larry's gift to the world was his enthusiasm, especially for all things bicycle! He owned and operated Competitive Instincts, a classic high end pro shop and built hundreds of custom bikes for his loyal clientele in Sandpoint, Idaho. He was also an avid ice climber, mountaineer, motorcycle racer (he raced early in his career for Penton), and cyclist. Larry loved to laugh, he will be remembered for his fantastic story telling (all of which were true) and his ability to find the humor in almost any situation. He was also passionate about social issues and was a fierce opponent of injustice. There will be an open house Celebration of Life at his home, located at 20390 Penhollow Ln, Bend, Oregon, Sunday, September 25 from 2-5 p.m. Please come prepared to share stories or memories of Larry. In lieu of flowers, please donate to one of the following charities Larry heartily supported during his life: 88Bikes Foundation (donates bikes around the world to those in need) National Resources Defense Council (provides protection for wolves) Humane Society of Central Oregon Arrangements have been entrusted to Niswonger-Reynolds Funeral Home, Bend.
