

Lila Liz McMahon

March 9, 1928 - August 2, 2016

Bend, Oregon Lila "Liz" McMahon passed away on August 2, 2016 following a long battle with Alzheimers disease. Lila was born March 9, 1928 in Santa Paula, CA to Claude and Agnes Boles. Lila was the youngest of four children. Soon after her birth, the Boles family migrated to nearby Ventura where Lila was raised. She met her husband Fred in Ventura. They married on January 11, 1956. The McMahon family moved to Bend from Ventura in 1970. Fred was a home builder and Lila held positions with local clothing retailers while raising her two sons. She was preceded in death by her parents; her brothers, Leon, Othel and Edward; and her husband Fred. She is survived by her sons and their families: Wes and Shawna McMahon of Florence, AZ and her grandchildren, Crystal, Jayson and Wesley; Jay and Debbi McMahon of Bend, and her grandsons, Patrick and Garrett. She is also survived by her niece, Sally Boles of Bend and San Diego, CA. Lila "Liz" will always be remembered for the great love she held for her family, The Church of Christ and her dogs. She will always be a Californian at heart no matter where she is laid to rest. Memorial service will be held at First United Methodist Church in Bend on Thursday, August 11 at 1:00 PM. Contributions in her name to the Alzheimers Association/Oregon Chapter would be appreciated.
