

Mabel Clara Ryder

November 2, 1920 - August 2, 2013

A lovely little lady, Mabel (Wilkins) Ryder went home to the Lord to join her husband, Gene, on August 2nd, just days after the day that would have been their 75th wedding anniversary. Mabel, the mother of Dennis Ryder (and wife Carol) of Richland, WA, Tom Ryder (and wife Carolyn) of Bend, OR and daughter, Sue Blake (and husband Ken) also of Bend, left behind a wonderful, loving family that also includes nine grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. Born November 2, 1920, Mabel traveled with her parents, Ruel and Nancy Wilkins from her birthplace of Pittsburg, IL to Portland, OR at the age of 3. She met Eugene Ryder while still a Washington High School student, and they were married the summer after her graduation in 1938. She had lived in Portland and Hillsboro until this past May when she moved to Bend to be closer with her family here. A private family service will be held later in August in Bend. Donations in her memory can be made to Hospice House of Bend, or the church of your choice.
