

Marjorie E. Lane

April 10, 1918 - March 23, 2015

Bend, Oregon Marjorie Evelyn Lane passed away peaceful with family by her side on March 23, 2015. She was a lifelong Oregon and Washington resident having been born in Madras Oregon on April 10, 1918 on the family homestead. From Madras she moved with the family at an early age to Bend Oregon where she attended Young School. She married Norman Cork and moved to Redmond Oregon where they had three children, Janice M. (Robert) Jenson, Larry N. Cork and Mary Jane (MJ) Smith. She kept books for her husband Normans construction business and was a homemaker. Later she married Roy E. Lane and had one daughter Carolyn A. (Carol) (Randy) Garrett. She also had a stepdaughter Janet (Thomas) Stewart. Shortly after that they moved to Vancouver Washington where Marjorie enjoyed being a homemaker, sewing and working with her flowers, but most of all she enjoyed having her family around. She loved to tell stories of her life and share family history with everyone. After retirement her and her husband Roy moved back to Bend where they made their home. Marjorie is preceded in death by her husbands Norman Cork and Roy Lane, her son Larry Cork and her three sisters Dorothy Taylor, Virginia Zehner and Jeanne Zimmerman. Marjorie is survived by her 3 Daughters, 15 Grandchildren, 23 Great Grandchildren and 15 Great Great Grandchildren. Contributions may be made to the charity of ones choice. Private family services will be held later.

“ I am sorry for your loss of a very neat lady. Janice I could not believe she passed on the same day as my Mother Nettie Harris. They were good friends for many years. I remember how she put up with us during our high school years. Helped us sew skirts, was just a good influence on us. We really go back many years. God Bless you and I Will always have Marge in my thoughts every March 23, with my thoughts of my Mom.
