“So sorry to hear of your loss, Susan. Though I haven't seen you two in years, I have wonderful memories of your involvement in DEFEAT cancer. Your Maury was a gentle and warm man. The best kind.”

“ Our sympathies to Susan and her family. I only saw Cousin Maury a few times over the years. The last time was at Uncle Bob's funeral in Minnesota, and we were delighted that he hung out with the 'young' cousins. He was a sweet man with a beautiful smile. “ Our sympathy to Susan and family Like a bird singing in the rain, let "grateful memories survive in time of sorrow" Remembering all the good times we had on the farm in Minnesota where we both grew up. Love, cousin Doris
