

Melvin A. Uptegrove

July 16, 1933 - August 27, 2014

Mel was born in Milwaukie, Oregon. He married Ruby E. Anderson on August 23, 1956 in Oregon City. For years Mel was the owner of Mels Shell service station on the corner of 8th and Greenwood in Bend. He then did automotive related sales until he retired. He was surrounded by family and passed away peacefully after a short illness. The family wishes to thank the staff of St. Charles Medical Center 4th floor and ICU, and Partners in Care Hospice House for his care. He was preceded in death by his son Steven, parents, one sister, one brother. He is survived by his wife Ruby Uptegrove, son Mike Uptegrove (wife Marcie), daughter Linda Spittler (husband Bob), grand children: Kailee Corpus, Erin Fielder (husband Ross), Adam Uptgrove, great grand daughter Mia Fielder, daughter-in-law Hope Uptegrove. At his request, there will not be a memorial service. His wishes were to be cremated and a private family memorial will be held at a later date at the Oregon Coast. Donations may be made to Partners In Care Hospice House in his name at 2075 NE Wyatt Court, Bend, OR 97701.
