“ the need to write words for you, knowing that you will not hear them, just for me certainly, on an ephemeral and discreet support, your obsessive memory of a son lost for eternity, of a part of me annihilated . so many missed moments, what is the bond between a father and his child, even thousands of miles away, and now billions of light years. I miss you, as all the loved ones miss you. the words, the writings no longer mean anything, it is emptiness and nothingness that remains. how long your face, your voice, your personality and your Aura will obsess us, when will we be more peaceful?

“ Mike is and still will be one of my best friends. We had many good times, and he helped me through the bad. He was always there for me. I was at his house almost every day, I will sure miss this guy. I will always remember you Mike. Much love to you.

“ Micheal was like a second son to me. My son used to babysit him when he was little. He had grown into a wonderful young man with a good head on his shoulders and plans for his future. His life was cut way way to short:(will miss your smiling face and your company at holiday time and more..... No words to explain the loss.....

“ "Inside us there is something that has no name, that something is what we are." Michael grew into such a strong and sensitive young man, who touched the lives around him. He will live on in our memories and our hearts.

“ Michael was a wonderful man. It was my son, I did not make enough the most of his existence on this earth, of her beautiful smile. I thank his mom and the Nature that he existed in this world. All words will not sufficiently express the eternal regret and our suffering. Always with us my son.

“ It was truly an honor to be Michael's wife. I always told him my life started when I met him. The hardest thing I will have to do is live in this world without him, but I know this is certainly not the end for us.
