“ We are deeply saddened by the sudden passing of our old friend. He had a huge impact on many lives. For that we are thankful. Some people we will always miss, and Mick is one if them. Prayers from us to the family.

“ I knew Mick when he was still Mickey, about 55 years ago in Orleans France where our fathers were stationed. My parents were from Redmond so the Oregon connection strengthened the instant bonding common to Army brats. France was a good time and place for energetic and expectant young men then. We played basketball everyday and had what we considered big meaningful adventuresâ€”like an unsupervised camping trip to the Riviera. Mick was a good friend and I have always valued the memories of his friendship. Over the years Iâ€™ve tried unsuccessfully to get news of his later life. I am very sorry that it finally came this way, but I am happy to see that he was so successful both in his business and his family. You have my deep and sincere sympathy for your loss.
