

Nancy Littell Fox

September 14, 1917 - July 2, 2012

Nancy Littell Fox, born Evelyn Ann Littell, was born in Hankow, China, September 14, 1917. She passed at the age of 94 on July 2, 2012 in Bend, Oregon. Nancy lived in Hankow, China until the age of 12, the daughter of missionary parents. She also resided in Hawaii, New York, Nebraska, Minnesota, California, and Arizona, before spending her final days in Bend, Oregon. Nancy's father was the Episcopalian bishop of the Hawaiian Islands from 1931 to 1942. She is survived by sons Robert, Port Leyden, N.Y.; Samuel, Bend, Or; and Stephen, Albuquerque, N.M. One of eight siblings, she is also survived by brother Joseph of Fallbrook, Ca. Nancy authored seven books, most relating to caregiving for the infirm and aged. Her most prominent title was How to Put Joy into Geriatric Care, published in 1978. She was a passionate advocate for the aged as she spoke to nursing home staffs and professional geriatric gatherings throughout the United States and Canada. The family requests that memorial donations be made to Partners in Care/Hospice House of Bend, Oregon.
