“ Dear Family of Pat von Riedl, I wanted to convey my condolences for the loss of your Pat. Pat and I met 10 years ago while both serving on the National Alliance on Mental illness, Central Oregon chapter board. We continued to serve until she became ill a few years ago. Those of us who served with her had high hopes sheâ€™d return when she recovered. Pat was one of those gems; initially non-flashy upon first meeting, but her depth and character was revealed over time spent. I enjoyed her warmth, humor and compassion. I know Iâ€™m not telling you anything unknown to you. But I hope to convey how her loss will be felt as she reached out and helped many in our community. If helping others enriches a life, she was a wealthy woman. With sincere sympathy for your loss, Eileen White
