“ I knew Pinky from golf as did many. He was a fine a man as there ever was, Smiles light up any place he ever went. Geeez we used to laugh so hard with his dry humor. I'll sure miss you Pinky.

“ Dear Bev & family: We just heard from friends of the loss of Pinky. He was the best friend Darrell Cowgill had and the stories of their adventures live on! Wishing you peace going forward.

“ Dear Bev and family, We are saddened to hear about the passing of "Pinky". We can still hear his Southern accent as he came back from down South sales trips. He always said that wood did not have flaws it had character. We remember our time working with "Pinky" fondly and we send our deepest sympathy. Sharon and Richard Bender
