“ To my amazing dad, Thank you for giving me erverythjng I have ever wanted and providing everything I've ever needed! You showed me what is means to provide and to support a life, you never gave up on us. I had an amazing child hood because of you and our amazing mother. I know that you are no longer suffering and that makes its ok, I couldn't get through this without my wonderful mom and I know that you will always be here watching over me ❤️ I wish I could have made you laugh a little more, I have too many fun facts that I wish I could tell you but I will pass them down to your beautiful little grand daughter and I will remind her of your love and who you were as she gets older, you will never be forgotten and I love you.

“ Loving condolences to the Fetcho family. Bob was a strong man, and he deserves credit. No matter what, he was always working on a car. Winter, spring, summer and fall. Such determination
