“ Dear Harriet, We send you our heartfelt condolences on the passing of Bob. We are at first shocked to read the notice in the paper, but after thinking about what you and Bob have been going through the last couple of years, we are consoled that he no longer has to struggle. We are thinking of you during this difficult time as you settle into your new surroundings. Thankfully you have family and friends to help you as you begin a new life. We will miss you. “ Dear Harriet and family, We want you to know that we are thinking of you as you go through this difficult time. It was always a pleasure to see Bobs smiling face and to admire how he handled some very stressful times. Hopefully, you are comforted by years of good memories, and in knowing that he is now at peace. Harriet, we wish you the best as you make your move back to Portland, It must be good to have familiar places and faces, and most of all, your family close by. In fond remembrance, Don and Carol “ Harriett: We were saddened to note Bobs obit today. Having been aware of his several close calls in recent years I guess it wasn't a real shock but nevertheless hard to take. Bob was a very solid guy and assuredly a fine husband and father over many years. My assessment of him during the numerous visits to your home was that he had lots of character and integrity. We understand youve sold your home and will move to Portland soon so its unlikely well see you again. I shall treasure fond memories of you and Bob and hope youll adjust well to your new location.
