

Robert Bob Stolz

February 3, 1925 - March 9, 2013

Bob was a WWII veteran, having served as a Radioman on the USS Eldorado during the Iwo Jima Campaign. He was on duty when the radio message was received that Mt. Sarabachi had been captured and the US flag raised, a major turning point in the battle of Iwo Jima. Although a Kansas farmboy, Bob and his wife have lived in Defuniak Springs, Florida for the past 30 years. Bob was a hospital administrator during his working years. However, he spent the majority of his life on adventures with his wife and children. He built sailboats and spent several years cruising the seas with his wife, Marge. He is survived by his widow Marge, his 5 children-Judy Parks, Bob Stolz, Cary Million, John Stolz, and Richard Stolz, and his 2 grandsons Sam and Sawyer Stolz. Bob was buried in Colwich, Kansas, near his hometown and farm where he spent his growing up years. May the winds always be in your favor dad as you embark on your next journey.
