

Ruth Marie (Gardner) Schaub

February 23, 1934 - February 26, 1934

On Jan. 30th, 2018 Ruth went home to be with the Lord after what she called an accomplished and beautiful life. Born Feb. 26, 1934 in Modesto, CA; she grew up running in the orchards and enjoying the country life. Ruth worked for Northrop Aircraft after completing Business College. At one fateful USO dance she met the love of her life, Gary Schaub. They were married June 21, 1959, and blessed with four children: Darian, Brian, Linda, and Neal. After relocating to Bend, OR in 1970-again to the country life-Ruth became very active with her church, family, farm, Cub Scouts, room mother numerous times, 4-H, CCD teacher, historian, and sunshine girl for the Deschutes Dusters Good Sam Camping Club. Ruth had great love for her family, oil painting, writing children's stories, and especially her weekly Bible study group. Her husband Gary and son Brian preceded Ruth in death. She will be forever remembered by her children, eight grandchildren, ten great grandchildren, many more family and friends as such a loving, giving person who has touched us all in so many ways. A Mass of Resurrection will be held in the downtown historic St. Francis Church on Mon., Feb. 5 at 10 AM . A rosary will be held prior to the Mass at 9:30 AM at the Church. In lieu of flowers, for their wonderful, loving support and care to others, donations may be made to St. Charles Hospice at: St. Charles Foundation, 2500 NE Neff Rd., Bend, OR 97701 or Foundation.stcharleshealthcare.org/donate (select "Hospice" under Gift Designation).
