

Stella M. Cook

May 3, 1928 - January 12, 2021

Stella was a loving and supportive wife to her husband Glenn for over 50 years. The center of her life was her husband and two sons, Glenn Jr., and David.

Numerous trips in the camper and trailer to the coast and high desert were main activities with her husband for many years. Hunting activities with her family was a joy for Stella partly because she was an excellent marksman.

Cross country skiing was an activity she began in her sixties. Riding horses was dear to Stella as a youngster in Paulina and as an adult. Stella was an avid reader and enjoyed mystery novels. As a sports fan, she particularly enjoyed watching competitive figure skating, horse racing, baseball, and football.

Stella will be deeply missed by all who knew her well.

Tribute Wall

TS

“ Geri Stout, Greg Cicatelli, Susan Stout, Dan Stout's Spirit. A very special Aunt.

Tribute Store - January 27, 2021 at 12:00 AM

JG

“ my mother would vist stella for coffee at her house when I was 5 or 6 years old. she was very humorous and a wonderful person. I almost got into trouble many times.

jay gulliford - January 20, 2021 at 12:00 AM