“ Grandma Matthews, I love you so much. I will forever think about the Christmases we shared. I never appreciated watching "It's a Wonderful Life" every Christmas Eve when I was younger. I remember always asking you if you had any movies that came in color. I remember playing a storytelling game with you on the couch and sharing endless laughs. You told me told me all of theses hilarious stories while we watched old home videos and laughed on the couch. You were a truly incredible woman. You were a source of love and light for everyone who knew you. Your warmth and smile were infectious, and you had this way of making everyone around you feel special and loved. You always loved your family, no matter what. Dad always told me about the impact you had on people, I never understood until I was older. I would give anything to hug you again. I love you, Grandma.
