

William R. McCluhan

June 26, 1923 - May 18, 2014

William R. McCluhan, 90, peacefully left this earth May 18, 2014 surrounded by his family. There will be a celebration of his life held at Discovery Christian Church in Bend this Saturday May 24th at 2:00 p.m. Bill was born in Wakenda, Missouri to Orville McCluhan and Hattie (Yuille) McCluhan. He was one of four siblings and is survived by his children Michael (Sally) McCluhan of Tigard, OR, Mitchell McCluhan of Temple, Texas, Pam (Rick) White of Bend, OR and son-in-law Alvin Campbell of Bend, OR as well as six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his loving wife Molly McCluhan and daughter Carol Ann Campbell. Bill was a WWII veteran serving in the Army Air Corps as a signals operator stationed on the island of Shemya in the Aleutian Islands of Alaska. After retiring as a Machinist and Tool and Die Maker in Los Angeles, he moved Bend to be near family. Bill spent many happy hours gardening and working in his shop at home and was an avid reader. There will be a private family internment at Pilot Butte Cemetery.
