“ Our deepest sympathies to Mimi & the extended Miller family. Since our days at Acalanes HS, Bill could always be counted on for his good sense, positive outlook, great sense of humor & ever-present devilish grin— all-around good guy. We had the good fortune to reconnect at BBR a dozen years ago. Pete & Dar Hegerle

“ Mimi I am truly saddened by Bills passing. He, Ken Howard and myself were room mates for several terms at the Beta House and now weve lost them both. Bill was a special person, and well all remember his humor, wit, warmth and tremendous gift of creativity, that served him so well, always thinking outside the box. He is now in the arms of our Lord, and well be together with him again. God bless you and your family. Love and Best Wishes..Morry

“ We share our sorrow with Mimi and family at Bills passing. He was a wonderful spirit and good friend. We have some fine memories with Bill & Mimi. Cant forget the time they stayed with us as the big forest fire approached Black Butte Ranch and they had to evacuate. Also Bill and I would often share our various experiences during our separate business careers. We know Bill is resting in peace and no doubt entertaining those he has now joined.
